NOTES RELATING TO THE LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA

The beginning of the Library Co. of Philadelphia, was largely owing to the Junto, a club founded by Benjamin Franklin for literary and scientific research. They gathered their books together in the house of Robert Grace in Pewter Platter Alley, now known as Church Street. From this beginning, at Franklin's suggestion, was established the first circulating Library with a continuous existence in America. The Instrument of Association was dated July 1, 1731, and the first books ordered bear date March 31, 1732. A number of books in this first invoice are still in good condition and some of them have been used within recent years. In 1733, Franklin acted as Librarian for three months. In 1738, John Penn presented the Library with an air pump, still in existence. Among the first members of the Board of Directors were, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Hopkinson, Thomas Cadwalader, and some others. The Directors held their meetings at various Taverns, most of them kept by widows, such as the widow Roberts, the widow Breintnal, and others. In 1740, the books were removed to the upper room of the westernmost office of the State House. In 1741, the Library received its first Charter.

Dr. Franklin acted as agent for the Library in London from October, 1760, till 1775. In 1769 the Association Library and the Union Library became a part of the Company. In 1773, the Library was removed to Carpenter's Hall. During the occupation of Philadelphia by the British, Carpenter's Hall was used as a hospital for the British forces, but the Library does not appear to have suffered any inconvenience. In 1789, the cornerstone of a new building was laid. This building in Fifth Street was occupied by the Library until 1880, when a portion of the books were moved to the Ridgway Branch, the building a gift of Dr. James Rush, and the main Library was removed to its present location, Northwest Corner of Locust and Juniper Streets.

In 1792, the Library Company became the Trustees of the Logonian Library. The Trustees today are: Albanus C. Logan, and Geo. Maurice Abbot.

The number of books taken out during the year ending last April was over forty thousand. The total number of books in both buildings is about two hundred and sixty-five thousand.

The officers at the present time are:

RULES OF THE LIBRARY.

I. The Library shall be open from 9 o'clock A. M. to 5 o'clock P. M., May to October, both inclusive; and from 9 o'clock A. M. to 5.30 o'clock P. M., November to April, both inclusive. On Sundays the Library shall be open from 1 o'clock P. M. until 5 (or 5.30) o'clock P. M., and on Legal Holidays from 9 o'clock A. M. to 1 o'clock P. M., for readers only. On Christmas Day and the Fourth of July the Library shall be closed.

II. All persons are allowed to consult the books in the rooms without charge during Library hours.

III. The Librarian shall lend to any member or subscriber
Four Volumes for Two Weeks, and no greater number, unless on hire, or so connected as to be otherwise useless; but at the discretion of the Librarian the time above mentioned may, in the case of new books in great demand, be restricted to one week. At the expiration of the time specified (unless application has been made by another member for the same books, and the Librarian requested to take a memorandum thereof) the borrower may, on producing the books to the Librarian, renew the same for the like time.

IV. Every person, not being a member or subscriber, who shall hire one or more books shall first deposit as security, in the hands of the Librarian, double the value of such book or books; but if the book or books should belong to a set, then such person shall deposit treble the value of the volume or volumes which he shall so take out.

V. Every person who shall take out a book or books on hire shall pay, for the use of the Library, ten cents a week for each volume, and no smaller sum, although the book may be returned within the week.

VI. Any person who shall neglect to return the book or books within the time specified in the third rule shall, for such neglect, after notice, pay to the Librarian, for the use of the Library (in addition to the hire when the book is not taken out by virtue of a share), ten cents per week; and if not returned, undefaced, within one month from the expiration of the time limited, the fine and hire accruing thereupon shall be doubled, and the deposit money, if any, shall be forfeited to the Company.

VII. No person from whom any hire or forfeiture is due, or who hath damaged any book, shall be permitted to have another book until satisfaction be made.

VIII. The Librarian is to conform to the instructions of the Directors with regard to such books as, from their scarcity and value, are to be let out only on certain conditions, or not at all.

IX. No person, whether a member or not, is to lend the book or books he borrows to any person out of his dwelling-house.

X. No book shall be lent on a share of a deceased member, unless authorized by the executors or administrators of such deceased member.

XI. Persons not members may take books out of the Library on the same conditions as members, by paying in advance twelve dollars for one year, six dollars for six months, or four dollars for three months, commencing at any period.

XII. When any member or subscriber shall desire to take out any book or books, the value of which shall exceed that of his share, or the proportionate part of his subscription unexpired, the Librarian may require him to deposit a sum of money double that excess.

XIII. Books will be sent to members or subscribers, if desired, by book post, express or local dispatch, at their expense.

Books will be kept for members and subscribers, upon request, and postal notices will be sent them when the applications are filled.

Members and subscribers are also entitled to take four volumes at a time from the Ridgway Branch, orders for which may be left at the main building.

INTER-LIBRARY LOANS.

Under the system of inter-library loans the Library Company of Philadelphia will lend certain books to other libraries for the use of students engaged in serious research.

A Library in borrowing a book is understood to hold itself responsible for the safe keeping and return of the same at the expiration of two weeks from its receipt.

An extension of the period of loan is granted, upon request, if the book is not wanted. The Library borrowing is to pay all charges, and it is understood that the books are not to be taken from the building of the Library to which the loan is made.
